Campaign launched to save lollipop lady

A CAMPAIGN has been launched to save the lollipop service that serves the 350 children at Seaton Primary School on Valley View.

Rita Hallett has been the lollipop lady safeguarding the safety of the children crossing the busy road for 22 years and has been associated with the school for 40 years, but has been told her part-time job is being scrapped as part of the cutbacks to the budget of Devon County Council.

"This service is needed as it is a very dangerous road," said Mrs Hallett.

by Kevin Fahey

Seaton Hospital is also on Valley View so generates a lot of traffic while the Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service also has a base virtually opposite to the school entrance. It is also a busy cut-through for local traffic at peak times.

"The lollipop service is very important for the safety of the children," said parent Mark Ellis, who has a 10-year-old daughter at the school.

"It is especially important as you now see Year Six children starting to walk to school on their own."

Mrs Ronnie Barrand has two children at the school and agreed that the lollipop service is vital to safeguard the safety of the children.

"Valley View is a busy road and there is an accident waiting to happen," said Mrs Barrand.

Councillor Jim Knight is chairman of the governors and also represents Seaton Coastal on Devon County Council, so has seen at first hand the effect of the cutbacks on the budget and the ramifications for local services.

"We feel that Valley View is a dangerous road for children to cross and the service should remain as it is," said Councillor Knight.

"We have an area that is frequented by people coming and going to the hospital, there is a fire station and a health centre on the corner. It is also on the bus route. We want to emphasise all of these points to support our case and ensure the safety of the 350 children and their parents who use the school."

Mrs Hallett works two hours a day from 8-9am and then 2:45-3:45pm and the service costs around £2,500 per year.

"What this service costs is a spit in the ocean really," added Councillor Knight.

"That is why we are fighting to keep it."

Councillor Knight has arranged a meeting with officials from Devon County and Seaton Town Councils plus the school early next month to discuss the matter further.

Former Vault landlord jailed for attacking DJ

A FORMER landlord of The Vault Bar in Seaton has been jailed for four years for attacking a man who kissed his wife.

Raoul East, 38, was cleared of attempted murder but admitted wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm.

The well known former local cricketer attacked the victim with a bar stool before inflicting a knife wound in the chest.

AXMINSTER

New man in charge at carpet factory

AXMINSTER'S most famous employer has a new man at the helm. Robert Day was part of the original team that rescued Axminster Carpets from administration in April 2013 and he has taken over the reins from former chairman Stephen Boyd, who stepped down after two years to focus on other business interests.

Commenting on Mr Day's appointment as chairman, board director Chantel Summers said: "Axminster Carpets is going from strength to strength and, as a board team, we are delighted to be working more closely with Rob Day who has many years' experience in the property sector.

"Stephen's input over the last two years has seen the business grow and he will continue to make a contribution as a non-executive board member and Rob will play a more hands on role in the business as the new chairman.

"With rising demand and new orders we currently have a staff team of 156 and we are also offering temporary work to people when we have surplus orders to fulfil.

"It's an exciting time for us. Axminster Carpets is an iconic British brand and we have some fantastic range launches planned for later this year."

Mr Day comes from a marketing background, having started a property marketing agency in the late eighties that grew to become one of the largest in the UK, employing over 140 people.

A spokesperson for Axminster Carpets added: "Robert has expanded his business interest over the years to include major commercial property investments from offices to warehouse and car parks as well as residential interests.

"With a strong background in business and property, Robert has worked alongside Stephen Boyd in other businesses for many years."

Following a board restructure last year, the company has scrapped the traditional role of MD.

From the editor's chair Long live the Chamber!

BY THE time you read this column the future of Axminster Chamber of Commerce will be known.

It would be a great shame if this once highly influential organisation in the business life of Axminster was allowed to die, especially as it is about to celebrate its 70th anniversary.

As a former acting chairman, I have always been a big advocate of small towns, especially the inland ones, having a vibrant traders' group.

When I first started out as a reporter, the Axminster Chamber of Commerce and Industry was one of the most respected organisations in town.

It's had a bit of a rocky ride in recent years but I've always felt that it is important that the chamber survives and we should applaud all those who have worked so hard to keep it going.

The resumed EGM was taking place last evening when it is more than likely that a new committee will be voted in and former chairman and chamber stalwart, Shane Morgan, will be back in the hot seat that he has occupied with such enthusiasm in the past.

♦ IT IS pleasing to see that the Axminster Hospital Action Group and the various NHS bodies responsible for the future of Axminster Hospital are now working together to find a solution.

Whilst it begs the question about why this did not happen when the possible closure of beds was first mooted, and before the NHS allocated £75,000 of money they don't have to reverse a High Court decision to keep the beds open, the only way forward to such disputes is by reasoned negotiation.

It was even more heartwarming to hear that there is clearly no shortage in nurses looking for a job in this area. Open days at Axminster and Seaton hospitals attracted dozens of potential candidates.

The fact remains, however, that the decision to permanently close the remaining ten beds in Axminster is still very much under consideration.

We can only hope that the bridges built in the past few weeks to resolve the situation amicably produces dividends.

SEATON

Campaign launched to save lollipop lady

A CAMPAIGN has been launched to save the lollipop service that serves the 350 children at Seaton Primary School on Valley View.

Rita Hallett has been the lollipop lady safeguarding the safety of the children crossing the busy road for 22 years and has been associated with the school for 40 years, but has been told her part-time job is being scrapped as part of the cutbacks to the budget of Devon County Council. "This service is needed as it is a very dangerous road," said Mrs Hallett.

Seaton Hospital is also on Valley View so generates a lot of traffic while the Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service also has a base virtually opposite to the school entrance. It is also a busy cut-through for local traffic at peak times.

"The lollipop service is very important for the safety of the children," said parent Mark Ellis, who has a 10-year-old daughter at the school.

"It is especially important as you now see Year Six children starting to walk to school on their own."

Mrs Ronnie Barrand has two children at the school and agreed that the lollipop service is vital to safeguard the safety of the children.

"Valley View is a busy road and there is an accident waiting to happen," said Mrs Barrand.

Councillor Jim Knight is chairman of the governors and also represents Seaton Coastal on Devon County Council, so has seen at first hand the effect of the cutbacks on the budget and the ramifications for local services.

"We feel that Valley View is a dangerous road for children to cross and the service should remain as it is," said Councillor Knight.

OTTERY ST MARY

St Saviours offer is disappointing

NEGOTIATIONS over a deal to secure the St Saviours building as a multi-purpose community facility for the people of Ottery St Mary are set to continue, after town councillors were left "disappointed" by an initial offer.

The redundant office building is currently owned by Devon County Council, but the authority is now looking to offload the asset as quickly as possible.

Town councillors believe the building could become a much-needed resource for Ottery and have been working with community leaders across the town to prepare a bid to take on the building.

The council's designated working group, which also includes representatives from Recycling in Ottery (RIO) and the Friends of Ottery Library group (FOOL), has been facing a race against time to submit its plans for St Saviours.

Both RIO and FOOL are interested in making use of the facility under community ownership, along with a series of other organisations that have expressed an interest in the building.

But it could be some time before an agreement is reached, after the county council offered a price below market value for the building.

'Time to draw a line under Beehive row'

TOWN councillors have taken steps to end a long-running dispute over the financial management of the Beehive "once and for all".

Members have unanimously agreed to open up the council's finances to independent scrutiny, in an attempt to finally draw a line under a bitter row that has raged since the building was opened almost a year ago.

In the face of calls from five councillors for the matter to be handed over to the police, members decided instead to allow independent auditors to look into the situation.

Subject to final approval, the South West Audit Partnership will conduct a 'mediation exercise', funded by East Devon District Council, and report back with its findings. It is not clear how long the process will take.

Councillors will be able to put their concerns to the auditors, but have been warned that the case will be considered closed if the report finds no wrongdoing has taken place.

Deputy Mayor John Zarczynski, who chaired last week's meeting in the absence of Mayor Peter Halse, said the council now had an opportunity to address all outstanding issues and provide a sense of closure on the matter.

"There comes a point where we have to draw the line", he said.

"There has been a lot of misinformation from armchair warriors, and on many occasions this council has been criticised unfairly.

"But this will be the last opportunity to express the concerns you have - we have wasted too much time going round in circles on this. There is no doubt in my mind that we will get a clean bill of health, but it is important to the public."

New faces set for key roles with twinning association

IT'S ALL change at Seaton and District Twinning Association as all five office holders are to stand down at the combined AGM and fundraising auction at Winston's.

Current chairman Clare Jones explained that there is no sinister aspect to the resignations, merely unfortunate coincidence.

She said: "Usually one or two people a year step down for reasons such as family commitments or changes of circumstance.

"This year it is five, and would be the first time there would be a complete renewal of officers in the 33-year history of the association."

She paid tribute to her fellow officers, who have given sterling service over many years.

In particular, they have striven to broaden the appeal of the twinning experience.

As evidence of this she explained how, on the last visit to France, the French hosts had laid on special events for the parties of Axe Valley Pedallers and Axe Vale Canoe Club.

She also highlighted how the twinning associations in Seaton and in Thury-Harcourt, Seaton's twin town, had assisted the visit to France of the youth teams of Seaton Football Club.

Although it was hard to single anyone out, she had to mention departing vice-chairman Jeff Day, who has served on the committee for more than 30 years including 19 as chairman.

Clare said: "He has been a tower of strength in the twinning partnership, a role that has seen him made Citizen of the Year 2010 not only in Seaton, but in Thury-Harcourt too."

The other post holders to step down are Shiona Rudge (treasurer), Sharon Bruce (secretary) and Graham Jones (publicity officer).

Clare added: "This year the AGM is being combined with a fundraising auction, which offers many superb goods and services donated by local businesses and association members.

"This is open to all, and the general public is invited to come to Winston's on Friday February 27th at 7:30pm after the AGM - not only to bid, but to meet the twinning."

Further details of the auction can be obtained from Sharon Bruce, either by calling in at Osborne's in Fore Street, or by phoning 01297 625875.

A NEW shop in Seaton has already been recognised by a national trade organisation.

Owl and Pyramid children's bookshop in Fore Street, which opened at the end of November last year, has come to the attention of National Book Tokens and been named Caboodle bookshop of the month.

Caboodle is part of the National Book Tokens website, and provides information and profiles of bookshops throughout UK. It also allows booksellers to let everyone know what events and offers are happening in their shop.

Owl and Pyramid proprietor Jenny Eagles said: "I was really pleased to win this award, particularly as I was commended for imaginative use of Caboodle to promote a variety of offers.

"It's good to know that what I thought was right for my shop and customers in Seaton is also recognised by a national body.

"And this has all happened after just a few short weeks. I've definitely got lots more to offer in the future."

PROMISING START: Jenny Eagles

Further delays to district local plan

COUNCIL bosses say further delays to the East Devon Local Plan are "inevitable" and the next steps in the process will have to wait until after the election.

East Devon District Council has been heavily criticised for failing to deliver the plan – a comprehensive blueprint for the area's future development – and it has now announced new delays that will take the project beyond the local elections in May. A crucial report, identifying the extent of housing needs in East Devon, was finally due at the end of last week. But the findings remain confidential and are subject to further scrutiny from councillors.

With the elections looming, EDDC says the process could be seen as being "politically motivated" and, as a result, members are not expected to see the report until after May.

Council leader Paul Diviani said efforts had been made to accelerate the process but warned that the elections would "overshadow" the plan.

"We are very much aware of the need to finalise our Local Plan, but at the same time we have to take the reports with proposed changes to the plan to our members for consideration

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

and consultation," he said.

"We had envisaged that the earliest we would have been able to take the reports to our members would be March or early April 2015. The process of consultation would then take around six weeks.

"However, because of the forthcoming local and national elections, this would not appear to be a viable route to follow, as there is concern that the process could be seen as politically motivated, which would overshadow the soundness of the plan."

He added: "While mindful of the need to progress quickly, the significance to the process of members' consideration and consultation should not be overlooked, and consequently it is unlikely that we will take the report to our members until shortly after the May election."

EDDC was told almost a year ago to reassess its Local Plan, after a government inspector found "serious failings" in a draft version.

The inspector highlighted a lack of up to date evidence on required housing numbers, and the council has since commissioned a series of studies in order to establish more accurate housing figures.

According to the council, the Strategic Housing Market Assessment report (SHMA) remains highly confidential at this stage as it is still a "work in progress."

EDDC was due to receive the report last week, along with two additional reports from companies commissioned to undertake specific work to investigate housing need.

But critics maintain that the council's slow progress is opening the door for housing developers to exploit the planning system and force through inappropriate applications.

Councillor Diviani added: "We welcome the imminent arrival of the SHMA draft report ... These three reports are an integral part of the East Devon Local Plan."

"Their undertaking, involving a significant number of other local authorities has been an enormously complex process, which has taken longer than would have been desirable."

"The benefits of undertaking these reports should not be underestimated."

"It clearly demonstrates that best practice is at the heart of our decision-making and confirmed the need for an altogether more substantial and complex end piece of work, and has fully justified the need for additional consultancy report."

Bronze for popular tourist attraction

WORLD of Country Life in Exmouth was awarded Bronze at the South West Tourism Excellence Awards in the 'Large Visitor Attraction' category last week.

The ceremony was held at Weston-super-Mare's Grand Pier and World of Country Life was the only finalist representing Devon in their category.

They were short listed alongside At-Bristol science centre, The Grand Pier in Weston-super-Mare, The Lost Gardens of Heligan, The Roman Baths & Pump Room and the Tank Museum in Dorset.

As one of the six finalists in this category, World of Country Life are also representing the South West in the National VisitEngland awards to be held in Newcastle this May.

World of Country Life manager James Turner said: "We are so proud to have won this award and to be recognised as having the great attraction that we strive to be."

"We credit each and every one of our staff who work really hard to ensure all our visitors have a fantastic time here."

"With the mixture of holiday makers and our loyal annual pass members who visit us regularly we are always looking for innovative ideas for our on site entertainment programme"

"It was gratifying to see so many people laughing and enjoying such unique experiences as our hilarious 'Quacky Races' duck racing and 'Lamb National' lamb racing events last year. We are keen to repeat this with our new 2015 entertainment schedule."

"Add to this our vast 'family' of different animals on the park it all adds up to making the best value day out in Devon."

Marketing manager, Debbie Butler, said: "This is such a wonderful accolade not only for World of Country Life but for Devon too."

"In today's climate it's essential to give people value for money and important to diversify especially with the recent effect the school holidays are having concentrating tourism into July and August."

"We are fortunate here at World of Country Life that we have the Hall of Transport, which houses one of the largest collection of steam and vintage vehicles in the South West, Memory Lane – an indoor Victorian Street – and a farming museum, all of which make a great day out for the older generation."

"In fact we have noticed a significant upturn in these visitor figures, which reflects in our theme for 2015 of 'Devon's All Weather Whole Family Day Out!'"

Visit www.worldofcountrylife.co.uk for more information on the attraction.

Abbey Gate collision

ONE person was taken to hospital after a car and a van collided on the A35 near the Abbey Gate turning in Axminster. The accident happened at about 3.30pm on Saturday January 27th, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One female was trapped in one of the vehicles and firefighters got to work extricating her by using hydraulic cutting gear and small tools." Police said she was taken to hospital in Exeter as a precautionary measure.

Railway arrests

TWO men, aged 27 and 22 respectively, were arrested at Axminster Railway Station on Tuesday, January 27th. The 27-year-old has since been charged with two counts of theft and one of burglary and released on court bail. The 22-year-old has been charged with breaching an ASBO, and has also been released on court bail. Officers from Devon and Cornwall Police and British Transport Police made the arrests following incidents in Axminster earlier that day.

Break-in attempt

POLICE are investigating an attempt to break into a warehouse on Millway Rise Industrial Estate in Weycroft Avenue, Axminster, at some point between 0.40am and 1am on Monday February 2nd. A police spokesperson said: "Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call 101, quoting crime reference 7452/15."

Free sessions for teen music makers

YOUNGSTERS in Axminster are being invited to build confidence through music.

Soundwaves is coming to town every Friday, offering free of charge music-making sessions at Pippins for those aged 11-19 years.

It is aimed at anyone who plays an instrument, DJs, or sings.

Soundwaves leader Pete Wild said: "We welcome everybody, whatever their level of musical experience, style or interest.

"We are keen to work with everybody from very experienced musicians to those who have not had opportunities to play an instrument, but feel they would like to have a go in a relaxed, creative and friendly environment."

Pete will be working with Axminster-based rapper/beatboxer Dean Skinner, singer/musician Jacques Verhaeren from local band Papa Le Gal and greeter Polly Wild to develop ideas generated by young people attending the course to see where they lead.

Dean said: "I'm thrilled to be working on Soundwaves in my home town where music opportunities for this kind of creative expression are incredibly limited for young people."

Pete added: "It's amazing how quickly young people can come up with a cool guitar riff, a couple of lines of vocals or a catchy keyboard line if they just have a go."

The project is funded by a charity named Youth Music and is run by an organisation named B Sharp from the Lyme Regis.

Pete explained: "B Sharp

■ THRILLED: Dean Skinner

music leaders have years of experience running music sessions for young people and many of us have extensive experience as professional musicians.

"There is a shared philosophy of building confidence in young people through music."

All Soundwaves sessions are free and take place at Pippins Community Centre every Friday from February 27th to April 10th, running from 6.30pm to 8.30pm. More information is available online at www.bsharp.uk.com

Residents form new pressure group

DETERMINED residents of the western end of Seaton are setting up a pressure group to "protect the natural environment and the area's architectural heritage from inappropriate development".

The group also aims to generally further the interests of the area.

The proposed name is West

Seaton and Seaton Hole Association, which will be formally discussed during a public meeting in Seaton Town Hall on Thursday, March 5th, starting at 7pm.

One of the group organisers, Martin Shaw, explained the move by saying: "The group came together after East Devon District Council approved a planning application in Seaton Hole last summer, overriding the unanimous objections of local people and Seaton councillors – and disregarding the Seaton Town Design Statement.

"The group is currently concerned about the proposal to build a block of flats with a car park on the site of a 1920s bungalow in Castle Hill, which it sees as the thin end of the wedge for West Seaton.

"Group members believe Seaton Conservation Area should be extended to the west of the town."

His fellow group founder Jon Chilcott stressed that the group is not only about objecting to things, but will also look to improve things.

This could include anything from staging litter picks to forming Neighbourhood Watch-style schemes.

Hilary Arnold added: "We think we have more effect as a group than doing things individually."

Liz Chilcott added: "It is a platform for people to be heard."

They vehemently deny being

NIMBYs, Mr Shaw saying: "We are for appropriate development."

All residents are welcome to the public meeting, which has been called to formally establish West Seaton and Seaton Hole Association.

Anyone wishing more information beforehand can e-mail seatonhole@gmail.com

Work on hotel to start soon

LYME Bay Leisure bosses hope to start work on a hotel complex at Seaton Heights at the end of March.

The Seaton Gatehouse Hotel, Spa & Leisure Resort was given planning permission last autumn after a protracted process.

A complex comprising a two-storey 12-bedroom hotel, 38 holiday accommodation units, a central amenities building to house a restaurant and leisure club, plus parking and access will be constructed.

But there has been some concern among locals that not much has happened since the planning consent was given.

Lyme Bay Leisure chairman David Sullivan told Pulman's View: "Whilst the planning application has been approved we are still waiting to sign the S106 agreement between ourselves and East Devon District Council.

"We don't think this should be more than a couple of weeks away. As soon as this is in place we should be good to go.

"We cannot confirm a start date on site but it is still looking like the end of March. Stage One, including the hotel and a number of holiday homes will take 12 months to complete.

"We are starting to offer units for sale."

Seafront consultation

SEATON Chamber of Commerce has arranged a Seafront Enhancement consultation evening for businesses to attend on Tuesday February 24th, starting at 7pm at The Eyre Court Hotel, Seaton.

Chamber chairman Marcus Hartnell said: "The consultant acting for Seaton Town Council will give a presentation on the plans so far, with a Q&A session for businesses afterwards.

"There will be refreshments provided.

"The chamber has organised this event to make businesses aware of the plans for the seafront, and in particular, for those businesses immediately affected by any changes, to come along and voice any concerns they may have."

Warning over community policing in Seaton and Beer

THE future of neighbourhood community policing in Seaton and Beer is under serious threat, according to local officer PC Steve Speariett.

PC Speariett gave his stark warning at the February meeting of Beer Parish Council as he hinted at the changes that could follow his retirement in June after 12 years working in East Devon.

"I don't think I will get replaced although it (the post) is being advertised," said PC Speariett.

"Public sector cutbacks will affect you. Response times will be hit and neighbourhood policing will be hit.

"When it comes down to minor crimes being investigated like they used to be years ago, then probably not."

Ironically PC Speariett's comments follow the recent confirmation that crime figures in Beer for 2014 were the lowest since modern records were first kept.

A total of 24 crimes were committed in Beer during 2014 which was a significant reduction on the 44 the previous year not to mention the total of 50 crimes recorded in 2004.

PC Speariett's warning also comes against confirmation from the Devon and Cornwall police force that as part of on-going budget cuts the number of Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs) will drop from 360 to 180 in the two counties.

At present PS Speariett works closely with PCSOs Mik McGauley and Sam Slater to tackle crime in the area but the cuts will clearly throw a question mark over their future as well.

"We have to be honest with people and we need to manage expectations," added PC Speariett.

Man injured after quad bike incident

A MAN suffered a foot injury after he fell from a quad bike in Beer.

Emergency services were called to Couchill Farm at about 7:45pm on Saturday, February 7th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One fire appliance from Seaton and one fire appliance from Colyton were sent to a report of a male person stuck under a quad bike.

"The male had fallen from the bike, which was stationary at the time, and had his leg stuck in the wheel."

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said the casualty was at the scene, but did not need to go to hospital.

MATTHEW Leighton-Fry has resigned as a Beer Parish councillor after just several months as he is relocating to Wiltshire.

"I'll be sorry to leave but I am sure my wife and I will continue to keep visiting Beer," said Mr Leighton-Fry.

Beer briefs

THE annual meeting of Beer Regatta will be held in the Balcony Room of the Mariners' Hall on Tuesday, February 24th at 7:30pm.

THE Beer Film Society will be showing the British comedy, What We Did On Our Holidays, starring Billy Connolly, David Tennant and Rosamund Pike, on Monday, February 23rd at Steamers restaurant (doors open 7pm).

Visitors welcome with tickets costing £5 on sale on the door.

Girlguides searching for new leader as they approach 90th anniversary

THE 1st Colyton Guides are searching for a new leader to take on the group as it celebrates its 90th anniversary year.

Guide leader of 27 years, Angela Sansom, who has been working with the group since she was 18, has decided to step down, along with assistant leader Jo Preston and unit helper Christine Sansom, both also with many years of service. The girls are now looking for their successors to join existing leader Anna Leggett, who will continue her role with the group.

The 1st Colyton Guides were registered at headquarters in London on March 18th 1925 and the girls will be celebrating their 90th anniversary by putting on a traditional pantomime for local Rainbows, Brownies, friends and family in March.

Other upcoming events include the group's main fundraiser of the year - their annual coffee morning and jumble sale to be held on Saturday, March 7th in Colyton Town Hall.

Girlguiding is the leading charity for girls and young women in the UK. Volunteering with the Guides - for girls aged 10 to 14 - can help create amazing opportunities for girls, build their confidence, raise aspirations and have fun. Meeting every Wednesday night in their own fully-equipped headquarters, the Guides take on projects and events that help them learn new skills.

Volunteers should be aged between 18 and 65 and free training will be provided. To find out more about volunteering, visit the website www.girlguiding.org.uk/get_involved/volunteer or contact Angela on 01297 552065.

Seaton man jailed for four years after pub stabbing

A SEATON man has been jailed for four years for attacking a man who kissed his wife.

Raoul East, 38, was cleared of attempted murder but admitted wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm. He was sentenced at Exeter Crown Court last week.

East was the landlord of The Vault Bar in Seaton when the incident took place at the bar in January last year.

He had gone upstairs but saw his wife and DJ Andrew Hines kissing on a CCTV monitor.

He rushed downstairs and carried out a prolonged assault on Mr Hines, punching and stamping on him.

Raoul, a former well-known local cricketer, then attacked the victim with a bar stool before inflicting a knife wound in the chest. The assault was captured on CCTV.

The defendant denied attempted murder and was found not guilty. But he admitted wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm and was jailed for four years.

Hospital recruitment days 'highly successful'

RECRUITMENT days at Axminster and Seaton hospitals attracted almost 200 people interested in working as nurses or healthcare assistants.

The aim is to find a total of 11 trained nurses and 12 healthcare assistants to allow the reopening of in-patient beds at Axminster Hospital.

The beds were transferred to Seaton Hospital earlier this year because of a shortage of staff at Axminster Hospital.

Axminster Hospital League of Friends offered to help with the costs involved if more staff could be found to bring beds back to Axminster. As a result, the league launched the recruitment drive with Axminster Hospital Action Group and Northern Devon Healthcare Trust (NDHT).

A statement issued by action group member Barbara Nevitt said: "We're constantly being told that there is a national nursing crisis. At Axminster Hospital, queues developed as potential staff, both registered nurses and healthcare assistants, came to find out about the jobs which are available."

"Many registered nurses were able to have an interview on the day whilst others will have theirs in the coming week, some looking for a full-time post and others wanting more flexible part-time work.

"There were opportunities to look round the hospital, which many described as impressive with great facilities.

"In Axminster there was a footfall of 106, of these 30 were registered nurses and 76 were healthcare assistants. Some of these needed further updating or in the case of healthcare assistants, full training.

"In Seaton there were eight registered nurses and 47 healthcare assistants with the same profile of requirements.

"Everyone involved with NDHT and members of the league of friends and the Axminster action group who were there hailed both sessions as highly successful and are optimistic in being able to obtain the staff needed to reopen the in-patient beds in Axminster."

The vacancies will remain open until March 1st and more information is available at www.east-devoncommunityhealth.co.uk

Frozen fans raise funds for village school

ELSA, Annas and Olafs were out in full force last Sunday, as hundreds of children dressed as their favourite characters from Disney's hit film "Frozen" helped raise funds for Kilmington Primary School PTFA.

Children and parents attended a sing-along screening of the film at the Regent Cinema in Lyme Regis. They were greeted by Princesses Elsa and Anna, played by Lyme residents Nicky Sweetland and Kelly Apps, as they arrived and were given goody bags with props to use throughout the film.

After taking their seats in the auditorium, Elsa and Anna sang some of the popular tunes from the musical film, including "Do You Want to Build a Snowman?" and "Let It Go". Prizes were then awarded for the best costumes before the lights dimmed for the film.

The event raised a total of £1,240 which will go towards musical instruments and other equipment. Organisers would like to thank Archway Bookshop and Primary Colours for selling tickets, and the cinema for hosting the event.

To infinity and beyond!

WILLOW class pupils at Offwell Primary School were very excited when launching a rocket as part of their science studies recently. Headteacher Anne Billington explained: "Their class topic is space and they have been working towards this exciting event since the start of term. They made their own rockets and were joined by the rest of the school and parents to watch the launch. After a safety briefing, teacher Mr Dunning hit the ignition button and the rocket took to the sky whereupon a parachute opened, bringing the rocket to a gentle landing in front of the delighted observers. Younger children were inspired to make their own rockets out of cardboard cylinders and other materials and Willow class will be visiting the Norman Lockyer Observatory next month."

We're asking you to put up a nest box in your local area to help increase the number of suitable nesting spaces for birds

Varied local history topics shared with Probus Club

LOCAL history enthusiast Tony Simpson recently made a welcome return to Seaton and District Men's Probus Club to give a thought-provoking talk about "Tunnellers of the Great War".

More than 1,500 of these specialist soldiers, who worked under no man's land in France digging tunnels to the enemy trenches to plant mines or listen in to communications, died in relative obscurity as their work was largely top secret. Many of these brave men who undertook this dangerous work were recruited from the Welsh mines.

With the aid of a series of trench letters and other family archives, Tony focussed his talk on his grandfather, Sapper James Morris, an experienced Welsh coal miner and tunneller with the Royal Engineers 257 Tunnelling Company. He was killed by a sniper on August 8th 1916 as he worked above ground improving trench defences.

Tony painted a poignant picture of the impact on the family and the neighbourhood when the menfolk did not return. He spoke of the pension rights of the widows and the hardship that ensued and, during Tony's research, he discovered that his grandfather, a father of six, had been promised a promotion at the time of his death - Tony is still pursuing the Ministry of Defence to grant that promotion posthumously.

■ THE Probus Club later enjoyed a talk by Doug Hislop, club member and leader of the local U3A archaeology group.

He gave a fascinating summary of Seaton discovery timelines starting with the Neolithic age. He described how Axmouth had been a sea port in Iron Age times and after the Roman invasion it was used as a supply harbour for the tin mining industry.

Doug then spoke about Seaton's Roman Bath

House, located at Honeyditches on the edge of Seaton, which is regarded as one of the most important Roman sites in Devon. From 1862 onwards a series of partial excavations took place and the site of a Roman Bath House was located, which could have been part of a mansion (official guest house).

Evidence was found of pillars of Beer stone below the main floor, the furnace, plunge pool, an outside well and changing rooms - although much stone was removed for house building in Seaton, some Roman artefacts can be found in the Seaton Museum.

Further partial excavations were carried out up to 1978 and there was an opportunity for the site to become a tourist attraction but there was local opposition to this and now there is nothing to be seen of the excavations apart from spoil heaps. As a scheduled monument, no further excavations can take place unless the land is developed for housing.

Probus members marvelled at this insight into local history and thanked Doug for marshalling a mass of information into such a fine talk.

He concluded by telling members about the hoard of 22,000 coins from the early fourth century that had been found locally. Currently, they are awaiting evaluation and the Royal Albert Memorial Museum in Exeter is trying to raise funds to preserve this hoard which will otherwise be lost to Devon.

The next meeting is on February 18th when Ian Hunt will talk about "How to Prepare for the Unexpected".

Meetings, which commence at 10am, are held at St Gregory's Church Centre, Colyford Road, Seaton. The club for retired or semi-retired professional men welcomes new members - call Keith West on 01297 624374 for further information or visit www.seatonprobus.co.uk

■ AXMINSTER Women's Section Royal British Legion members are photographed holding a donated quilt to be raffled over the next few months at coffee mornings in the Church Rooms. The handmade quilt illustrates Chelsea Pensioners and the Kohima Epitaph on one side, and on the reverse the Exhortation. All proceeds raised will be allocated to RBL's welfare work. Pictured left holding the East Devon Group cup won at a recent group meeting, president Audrey Lanchery and vice-chairman Pat Powell. To the right, standard bearer Valerie Clarke, member Rosa Loud and chairman Lesley Frankau holding the Devonshire Cup, awarded to the Axminster branch for the highest small branch donations achieved for year.

Art society holds critique of members' work

SEATON & District Art Society recently held its annual critique of members' work, carried out by president Alan Cotton, D.Litt FRSA.

Alan made time from his busy life at Bath University to come and give encouragement and useful comments about paintings brought in by members. He had quite a range of techniques and subjects to cast his expert eye over.

In between his critiques, Alan added amusing stories and relevant thoughts about a variety of artistic problems and historical events. He lifted everyone's spirits by remarking that the only paintings we ever really see by Van Gogh, for instance, were the ones he did on his good days, and there are in existence some very badly executed works done on Vincent's off-days.

He advised the members not to pay too much attention to comments made by their friends, since they always had a tendency to be too kind, and to try out various sizes of canvas and paper, thus avoiding getting into a rut.

The new Arts Complex, shortly opening in Bath, will be featuring Alan's work as its opening exhibition, and members were informed that the same exhibition would be coming to Exeter later in the year.

The next demonstration will be held in Seaton Town Hall at 2pm on March 2nd and will be by water-colourist John Hoar, entitled "Perspective on a Hill". Visitors will be made very welcome for £3 entrance fee.

Bigger issue of permanent bed closure is still hanging over us

THE February 7th meeting at the Guildhall was very encouraging and hopefully the recruitment drive will soon lead to a reversal of the North Devon Healthcare Trust's temporary removal of beds from Axminster Hospital.

However, the bigger issue of permanent removal of beds by the NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) is still hanging over our us and, although most of us can see the folly of such a move, it seems clearly to be a symptom of a much bigger issue – i.e. "what is happening to the whole of the NHS?", which it seems can be summed up as follows:

- To date the NHS has worked brilliantly due to the skill and dedication of the people working the system to provide excellent healthcare, free, at the point of use – in spite of being handicapped by a top heavy and very seriously fragmented management and commissioning organisation;

- Because of its success the demands on the NHS are inherently increasing each year;

- The NHS budget has been ring-fenced and maybe even increased in an attempt to avoid the effect of recent and necessary austerity measures but this ring-fencing does not allow for the increasing demand, which is real;

- The pressure on the NHS hospitals due to increased demand is exacerbated by a backpressure caused by cuts in social care.

Recently, in a letter to the three major political parties,

We need a change at district council level

WITH regards to the From the Editor's Chair column titled "Party time at the Knowle!" (Pulman's View, February 10th): I totally agree, we need distinct change in East Devon.

The arrogant Tories need ousting and we all now have the opportunity of doing so in the local elections ties, the country's leading doctors, nurses and charity executives have spelt out this precarious position. As I understand it, they have made it very clear that the "twin crisis of rising demands and flattening budgets" means that, if we carry on as at present, the NHS will go into the red either in 2015 or 2016, and that by 2020 the NHS deficit will be a massive £30billion.

They also made it clear that, in order to stay true to the founding principles of the NHS for future generations, a comprehensive, fully-costed, long-term plan is needed.

Even more recently, a report by the King's Fund, a leading health think-tank, has, on similar grounds, severely criticized the coalition's handling of and changes made to the NHS and social care. But in May this year we will hopefully have a strong government that will be well-placed to make the much-needed radical changes.

So all the worrying changes that the narrowly focused CCG are trying to make in the interest principally of saving money makes no sense at all when, shortly, with election fever behind us, it may all be changed again – that is assuming the damage done is repairable.

So, for now at least, CCG, will you please leave Axminster Hospital beds where they are needed?

Suspicious silence over new hotel

■ HOTEL... what hotel?

Is it only me or has anyone else noticed the lack of information from so called Lyme Bay Leisure about when they are starting work on the long awaited hotel and leisure facilities near the Tower?

Now the bat situation has been solved, we were told work would start and that before Christmas 2014 there would be more information available as to timescales.

Since then there has been a very suspicious silence from all involved. All news seems to revolve around that other white elephant, known as Seaton Jurassic! The expected 70,000 visitors to the centre will have nowhere to stay, park or spend their hard earned cash once they have seen the rocks!!

If they want to work off some energy at the outdoor gym, they will have to find it first as it is conveniently hidden away at the top of a hill which, if you are overweight in the first place, will suffice as a workout just getting up there!

Wouldn't it have been more sensible to place this where the chess tables are... has anyone ever played chess there or are the tables only used by seagulls and people eating their fish and chips?

Let us not forget the councillors are up for election this year and if we want to know how/why they are wasting our money, perhaps we should track them all down (as they never seem to want to show their faces) and make them earn our vote!

Mad music, brilliant ballet and top theatre at The Gateway

SEATON'S Voice at The Gateway will be showing the encore streaming of the Royal Shakespeare Company's performance of Love's Labour's Lost, from the RSC Stratford upon Avon.

Summer 1914. In order to dedicate themselves to a life of study, the King and his friends take an oath to avoid the company of women for three years.

No sooner have they made their pledge than the Princess of France and her ladies-in-waiting arrive.

Christopher Luscombe returns to the RSC to direct this Shakespeare comedy.

The streaming will take place on Friday, February 20th. Doors open 6.30pm, with the performance from 7pm. Approx running time is three hours.

Tickets are £12.50 in advance from the Box Office 01297 625699 and from the website ticket shop, or £15.00 on the door.

Mad Dog Mcree are back for their long-awaited fifth gig at The Gateway. Get ready to stomp, clap, jig and all that as Mad Dog Mcree raise hands, lift feet and start parties wherever they play with their spellbinding recipe of folk, pop, rock, jazz, bluegrass and 'shake your ass' music.

Support comes from Sound of the Sirens. Two great acts for the price of one, bargain!

Mad Dog Mcree play live at The Gateway on Friday, February 27th. Doors open 7.30pm. Tickets are £12.00 in advance or £15 at door, available from Gateway website ticket shop or The Gateway box office 01297 625699

Rounding off a fine trio of events, The Gateway will screen Bolshoi Ballet's performance of Romeo & Juliet, Prokofiev's finest ballet, based on Shakespeare's tragic love story and superbly choreographed by Yuri Grigorovich.

The feud between the Montague and Capulet families is bringing bloodshed to the streets of Verona.

So when the Capulets organise a masked ball in honour of their daughter Juliet, Romeo Montague and his friend Mercutio attend incognito.

The young couple fall hopelessly in love, but soon realise that they belong to rival houses.

Written in 1595, William Shakespeare's timeless tragic love story was the inspiration for Prokofiev's much-loved ballet, which is packed with famous melodies.

Love's Labour's Lost

Its centrepiece is the instantly recognisable, supremely dramatic 'Dance of the Knights', which was appropriated as the theme tune for 'The Apprentice'.

Choreographed by the Bolshoi's legendary former artistic director Yuri Grigorovich, this production benefits from outstanding performances by Alexander Volchkov as Romeo and Anna Nikulina as Juliet.

The screening will take place on Sunday, March 8th. Doors open 2.30pm, with the performance at 3.00pm. Approximate running time 3hours 30mins

Tickets £15 in advance from the Box Office 01297 625699 and from the website ticket shop, or £17.50 on the door.

Happy Shappi

STAR of Live At The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, Friday Night with Jonathan Ross, Have I Got News for You and Q.I, Shappi Khorsandi is back with a brand new show at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Reflecting on the good things, she celebrates her haphazard zigzag towards her dreams. She introduces us to friends, family and total strangers who have helped her on her personal Yellow Brick Road.

She has whip-crack jokes and is effortlessly funny as she handles every subject with a razor sharp wit, softened only by her deliciously mischievous delivery and endless charm.

Shappi Khorsandi comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Friday, March 6th at 8pm.

Tickets are £14 or £12 concs, from www.marinetheatre.com or the box office on 01297 442138.

Showstopping circus as you have never seen it before!

BETA TESTING is a show stopping performance that reveals circus as you've never seen it before, and it's heading to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this weekend.

It stars three young professional jugglers who are taking a road trip to show you life behind the scenes in their curious profession. By nature juggling is obsessive and super geeky, this show explores what happens when obsession spirals out of control. You can expect comedy and real life stories combined with show stopping skill.

The trio started a blog called Circus Geeks after a particularly late night conversation about the definition of juggling, art and how to make the perfect pizza. They all agreed that there was not enough information, ideas and connection amongst circus artists and the wider world.

Circus Geeks now has 30,000 followers across the globe, this show is based on it's most popular and exciting posts.

All performers are graduates of, and now teachers at the UK's top circus schools, these men are professional jugglers and the show looks at everything this entails including the strange and wonderful things that people ask professional jugglers.

Tour manager Lauren Hendry said "Expect the unexpected when Circus Geeks start their tour in Dorset next month, there will be leftfield comedy, juggling with chairs and an intriguing mix of the spectacular and the personal"

Circus Geeks - Beta Testing tour comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Sunday, February 22nd at 6pm. Tickets are £10 and £8, from www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

AXMOUTH WAKES UP SLEEPING BEAUTY

It's Pantomime time again in Axmouth Village Hall

AXMOUTH Children's Theatre present the Pantomime "Sleeping Beauty, the True Story" on Friday, February 20th at 7pm and on Saturday, February 21st at 6.30pm.

Having had a break last year, ACT has bounced back with a brand new production; a fun show with plenty of songs and dancing. Once again the entire cast is made up of children with ages ranging from just 7 to 17.

Needing helpers, the writer/director Malcolm Henty sent out a rallying call to all parents: the response has been overwhelming and the show goes on.

The story tells of a beautiful princess who upsets someone and pays the price before being woken from her deep sleep by a handsome Prince. There's a lot more to it, but why not come and see it to learn more.

Co-director and choreographer Beth Wood plays the Fairy Godmother with Jessica Spiller as Princess Beauty. Matt Real is the Prince with Elwin Moss as Rumpel. The parts of the King and Queen are played by Euan Hartnell and Beth Perry with Amber Snell as the Royal Nanny. The chief fairy, Fairy Good, is played by Imogen Oldfield with the other fairies all adding song, dance and colour AND we have a Wolf played by Callum Wood.

Tickets priced at just £5 adults and £2 Under 14 can be booked at the Box Office 01297 23847.

Legendary house DJ Brandon Block comes to Axminster

FOLLOWING the unprecedented success of the recent nights, Back to the Guildhall are collaborating with All Things House to present the biggest superstar East Devon has ever witnessed.

With the sad closure of The Grove Niteclub there's been a void in the local nightlife scene that Back To The Guildhall has filled with their themed discos.

The next logical step was to join forces with All Things House to bring something fresh, exciting and completely new to the mix... Introducing Brandon Block.

Brandon Block has been a staple fixture in the British dance music scene since the birth of acid house (and a DJ long before that playing funk & soul in the mid 80s). Having played Worldwide at some of the best clubs & parties on the planet for well over two decades now, we are very excited to bring the house music icon back to the South West for this very limited & intimate appearance. Having really made his mark on clubland in the early 90s with the World renowned Fantazia Club Classics album series, and also his pioneering residency on the terrace at Space! in Ibiza with Alex P, Brandon has gone on to become an Ibiza legend and mischievously even crossing over into celebrity status with his numerous TV appearances on MTV, Top Of The Pops, Never Mind The Buzzcocks, Celebrity Detox and of course his very colourful appearance with Ronnie Wood at the Brit Awards in 2000.

Musically Brandon has a wealth of experience and is a staunch champion of the funkier end of house. His continued success means Brandon Block is still one of the UK's most sought after DJs with his diary generally full up to six months in advance.

Brandon recently has also reflected on the highs & lows of his extraordinary career in the form of his Biography 'The Life & Lines of Brandon Block' where he talks very openly about the last 25 or so years as one of the UK's most successful club DJs.

Event Information and Details

Brandon Block plays at The Guildhall, Axminster from 8pm-1am on Saturday, February 21st with local supporting DJs.

For more information please visit the event page on Facebook. Advance tickets are available to buy for just £7 from the Archway Book Shop, Axminster or online at undergroundtickets.net. Tickets bought on the door will be more.

STERLING PRESERVATION

Don't let Beetles play in your Loft!

SPRING heralds the beginning of "woodworm season" when the common furniture beetle begins to emerge from the centre of timbers where it's been eating during the winter. Their presence is detected by little round holes often coupled with deposits of dust.

Given the right conditions beetles can infest a wide variety of timber, both soft and hardwoods including structural building timbers, furniture and wooden ornaments. If left unchecked infestations can lead to severe structural weakening and eventually total collapse.

But treated early with an effective woodworm insecticide, common furniture beetles don't pose a major risk to structural durability.

Have your Timbers treated without delay ensuring 10 years Peace of Mind. Call STERLING PRESERVATION LIMITED today 07771 666 938.

Subaru Forester Named 'Best Family 4x4'

SUBARU'S venerable and versatile Forester SUV has again been named 'Best Family 4x4 of the Year' by Motors North in its Highland Car of the Year Awards.

The Forester has previously fared well in these awards, claiming the same accolade in 2014. In 2013, off-roading specialist publication 4x4 Magazine also crowned the Forester as its 'Mid-size SUV of the Year', beating a number of key rivals to the prize.

The Forester went on sale in the UK in May 2013 and builds on the model's reputation as a rugged, user friendly and go anywhere SUV. Compared to its predecessor, the new Forester offers more efficient performance, even better safety features and a more spacious and better appointed cabin.

Subaru's most popular all-wheel drive model is also backed by a long and enviable reputation for reliability as well as a comprehensive five-year, 100,000-mile warranty and rock-solid safety credentials.

Of the Subaru, Motors North said: "A firm Highland favourite and previous winner in the category, the Forester is growing more refined and desirable as time passes and offers excellent value for money in a spacious, comfortable package."

Updates for 2015

For 2015 the Forester also gets a mild makeover with further improvements to the appointments in the cabin and a new range of factory-fit sat nav and infotainment systems. The Forester will also be available for the first time with Subaru's advanced CVT Lineartronic transmission coupled with the Boxer diesel engine.

Unusual in the segment but keeping true to its heritage, Subaru offers a petrol turbo Forester in the form of the XT Turbo and which has proved popular with Subaru buyers – equipped as it is with a 240ps 2.0-litre turbocharged direct-injection engine delivering super smooth pulling power both on and off-road. The Forester range is also available with Subaru's hallmark 2.0-litre petrol and diesel Boxer engines, and all versions of the car feature Subaru's advanced All-Wheel Drive system as standard.

All New Specification Audi RS 3 Sportback is Raring To Go

▲ New beginning for Audi RS 3 Sportback

THE all new 367PS Audi RS 3 Sportback is now en route to the UK, and as the most powerful compact hatchback currently in series production will be even more adept at catering for sports car devotees who also need to take care of everyday necessities like the school run and the supermarket sweep. Capable of snapping at the heels of exotica with its 4.3-second 0-62mph sprint time and potential top speed of up to 174mph, the new five-door, five-seat Sportback will weigh in at £39,950 OTR. It will become available to order in March and reach its first UK customers in the summer.

The new entry point to the formidable Audi RS range is born of impeccable breeding – it is based on the current World Car of the Year and features the latest evolution of the evocative 2.5-litre five-cylinder TFSI – winner of the International Engine of the Year Award in the 2.0 to 2.5-litre category on no less than five consecutive occasions since 2010. Equally reassuringly, it shores up the extraordinary performance and handling produced by bringing these two elements together with the latest generation of quattro all-wheel-drive.

The 367PS output from the aurally characterful 2.5-litre TFSI is complemented by peak torque of 465 Nm (343.0 lb-ft), which is available right from 1,625rpm through to 5,550rpm, ensuring that huge reserves of performance are always at the driver's disposal.

With a power-to-weight ratio of 241PS per ton achieved by trimming an additional 55kg compared with the previous RS 3 Sportback, the latest car needs just 4.3 seconds to hit 62mph from rest, and with a suitable stretch of Autobahn to hand could continue to an electronically governed 155mph top speed. Drivers looking for optimal performance can also specify an optional increase to 174mph.

EU6-compliant

Compliance with stringent EU6 emissions legislation confirms that the latest edition of the classic five-cylinder unit is as frugal as it is feisty. With the help of a recuperation system, a demand-controlled oil pump and a new generation start-stop facility which increases the duration of engine 'downtime' at each stop, the latest RS model is capable of returning up to 34.8mpg, corresponding to CO2 emissions of 189g/km.

Butterfly valves in the exhaust system control the exhaust flow and deliver a suitably full-bodied and characterful note that varies with engine load and speed. For the first time in an Audi model at this level, a sports exhaust upgrade which deepens the tone even further is also available as an option. The driver can control the volume and depth of the output in both set-ups via the standard Audi drive select adaptive dynamics system.

A seven-speed S tronic twin-clutch transmission reworked to offer even faster shifts directs the power to the quattro permanent all-wheel drive system with its redesigned and lightened multi-plate clutch and torque vectoring capability. The clutch is mounted on the rear axle in the interest of balanced load distribution, and the parameters its bespoke RS 3 software works to can be controlled via the Audi drive select system.

Depending on the situation, it can send between 50 and 100 percent of the available torque to the rear axle, and when Audi drive select is in dynamic mode and the ESC Electronic Stabilisation Control system is in its sport setting, power is transferred to the rear sooner and in greater amounts for even greater agility and more direct turn-in.

The state-of-the-art all-wheel-drive system adds a further measure of control and composure to the inherently agile RS-specific chassis with its wider track front and rear, uprated MacPherson strut front suspension with purpose-built lightweight aluminium pivot bearings and four-link rear set-up. The new electro-mechanical progressive steering system which is capable of varying its ratio as a function of steering input also helps to emphasise the quick-witted feel.

From the driver-focused section of the options list the Audi magnetic ride adaptive damper system can be added to level out ride and handling to an even greater degree, and the steadfast RS-specific disc brakes with their efficiency-boosting wave contour discs, eight-piston calipers and bespoke lightweight friction rings upfront can be further upgraded with carbon fibre-ceramic front brake discs – a first for a car at this level.

Local football round-up

Tigers spirit rewarded with superb victory Wasteful Vikings made to pay - Six hit Fenny bounce back

SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LGE

Sidmouth Town 1 Alphington 2
SIDMOUTH TOWN paid the price for some wasteful finishing against Alphington who were watched by Matt Grimes the former Exeter City starlet now on the books of Premier Division Swansea City who was in supporting his 16-year-old brother who was making his debut for the Chronicles.

The Vikings began well and should have been one up inside the first minute - Aaron Doble's free-kick was palmed by the visiting keeper back into the path of Tony Cox who inexcusably blasted his shot over the bar from six yards out.

In the 20th minute Alphington took the lead when Ryan Levington chipped the on rushing Dec Lines in the home goal.

The remainder of the half saw Sidmouth create further chances with Cox causing the Alphas all kinds of problems with his direct wing play and should have scored at least twice by half-time.

Ten minutes into the second half Sidmouth were level when the unmarked Riki Pitter Pitter blasted past the Alphington goal keeper.

Sidmouth were very much on the front foot but failed to take full advantage with Pitter and Pavey missing further chances. In the 70th minute Ryan Moody netted what proved to be the winner with only their third shot of the game.

With five minutes remaining MoM Jamie Newbery had the chance to restore parity but lost his footing with an open goal in front of him and the ball was cleared.

The Vikings travel to Tavistock next Saturday.

Axminster Town 2 Galmpton Utd 1
AXMINSTER TOWN turned the form book upside down as title-chasing Galmpton United were beaten at Feniton on Saturday.

But the result wasn't a surprise to the Tigers Joint-manager Keith Somers: "We threatened this last week against better opposition (Tavistock) but came up just short."

Ax soon took control of the first half and were rewarded with a couple of excellent goals from Ben Vine and top-scorer Sam Dibling who moved into double figures for the season.

Somers felt they could even have had three more but for the efforts of an inspired Galmpton keeper.

The visitors had a better second 45 but the Tigers defence, with centre-back Gary Macauley in commanding form, held firm conceding just once with 10 minutes to go.

Ax went close from the restart with a long-range lofted effort from Vine which drifted just wide.

Somers was pleased with a fine team performance but gave particular mention to the midfield trio of Alex Wheatley, Danny Galloway and Brad-Lee Miller and strikers Dibling and Vine but his MoM was Macauley: "He was a rock at the back."

Next up for the Tigers is Saturday's visit by Liverton United

D&E LEAGUE REPORTS

Beer Albion 1 Elmore 1

Premier Division

AFTER being well beaten away at Elmore last week Beer Albion put up a much improved display in the return fixture at the Furzebrake on Saturday.

The Fishermen have not been in the best of form lately and it showed early on as they made an apprehensive start.

They seemed content to let Elmore attack and just soak up the pressure with some stubborn defending.

It wasn't a great spectacle but by and large Elmore were restricted to long range efforts which did not trouble Albion keeper Steve Jones.

Beer's only worthwhile efforts in the half came from free-kicks. Firstly Ollie Morgan tested Elmore keeper from 20 yards and then just on half-time from a similar distance Richard Walker's quickly-taken effort went inches wide of the post.

Player-manager Walker's half-time team talk must have been impressive because Beer came out with great purpose and determination after the break.

Strikers James Melville and Walker pushed higher up the pitch and Beer bombarded the Elmore defence with long balls. After 55 minutes Walker gave Beer the lead with a great turn and strike into the corner after a long clever flick by Jacob Clode at the near post.

But Elmore equalised 10 minutes later with Andy Murphy scoring with a low shot from 15 yards.

The game was now very open with Beer going close through Phillips and Foster, and Elmore being denied by some desperate interceptions by the Beer back line.

With minutes to go tempers on both sides erupted following an incident on the touchline. Referee Peter Hardy red-carded two players; an Elmore striker and, bizarrely, Beer substitute Michael Westlake who had not yet been called into action on the field of play!

There were some good performances for Beer all across the park with Kieran Love and Morgan inspirational in a well-earned draw.

The next game at the Furzebrake is on Saturday when Beer Reserves entertain Dunkeswell Rovers in Division 6 of the Fresha League. Kick off is at 3 pm and the Match sponsor will be East Devon Physiotherapy & Sports Injury Clinic Ltd, Sidford (email: info@eastdevon-physio.co.uk).

Division Six

BEER Reserves continued their good run and moved up to fourth in Division Six after grinding out a 1-0 win in muddy conditions at Railway Club. It was a resilient performance under sustained pressure from the home side.

For long periods The Fishermen, missing key defenders Robert Adkin and Ollie Page, fought a rear-guard action with Josh Moughton and Matt Smith outstanding at the back.

Beer's winner came in the second half after a goalmouth melee, the ball being bundled over the line by Tom Neale.

After the game, Beer player-manager Simon Smith commented: "We were a bit lucky today, but it was another gritty team performance."

Round-up with Collin Goodwin

THE League's hopes of bagging all four places in the Firewatch Devon Senior Cup semi-finals were halved after both UPPOTTERY and WITHERIDGE lost out.

"Withy" went down 2-0 to ASHBURTON, despite feeling that they were the better side and hitting the woodwork twice. Upottery lost 3-2 after extra time at LANDKEY TOWN, a penalty being their undoing. Joey Jones and Mark Tucker had the Upottery goals.

The quarter-finals, between Henry's Cronies and Exwick, and Lapford and Exmouth Amateurs, were postponed.

BOW AAC won the battle of the newly-promoted Premier teams as they came from behind to beat SIDBURY UNITED, 2-1. The home side led through Danny Green but, after having a man sent off, they were caught and passed with five minutes to spare. Dean Jones and Jack Greenslade netted the Bow goals.

FENITON recovered from last week's disappointment with an outstanding 6-1 win at THORVERTON. Charlie Selley, Paul Dowling, Danny Lewis, Rob Pfeiffer, Billy Parnell and Ben Allen all chipped in with a goal.

Former Millwey Rise and Axminster striker Joel Seward scored twice on debut for SEATONTOWN, who were 4-0 winners against WILLAND ROVERS, a much-needed maximum for the Seaside. Mark Perham and Jake Richards also scored.

Martin Porter was the star of the show for CLYST VALLEY as the 16-year-old helped destroyed LYMPTONE, 6-0, in their Division One match. Porter capped his efforts with a goal, the rest coming from Chris Clow, (2), Oly Bird, (2), and Jordan Harris.

Leaders HONITON TOWN never got going and had to settle for a goal-less draw with struggling WELLINGTON TOWN, but rivals NEWTON ST CYRES were also held 1-1 at ALPHINGTON.

Two goals in the last 20 minutes earned the UNIVERSITY a 2-0 win at EAST BUDLEIGH whose manager Spencer West says that his team cannot buy a goal at present.

Division Two leaders COLYTON were undone by NEWTOWN hotshot Dale O'Donoghue who scored all their goals in a 3-1 success. Both winning goals came after Newtown had a player sent off.

CHULMLEIGH joined the leaders as they beat CULM UNITED, 5-1, while TIPTON ST JOHN won their derby game against bottom-of-the-table NEWTON POPPLEFORD, 4-2.

LYME REGIS were able to regain third place in Division Three once more after beating PINHOE, 6-1, but they only equalised the 'Pins' early goal two minutes from the break. After that the goals flowed with Mark Bailey getting a hat-trick, Ben Whittington, Lee Cleal and Joe Bond netting singles.

OTTERTON extended their Division Five lead when winning 2-1 away at WINKLEIGH whose Ben Mardon scored their only goal.

OFFWELL RANGERS won 3-1 at LYMPTONE, in the only Division Seven match played. Dan Williams, (2), and Ashley Trudgeon were the Rangers scorers.

Tigers roaring

Honiton Tigers (U8s)

The Tigers continued their recent good form when BRIDPORT visited Northcote Lane on Sunday.

The hosts claimed a win and two draws in the four matches played and can go into this weekend's festival at Sidmouth in buoyant mood.

Split into two teams, coach Adam Kent's group claimed a win and defeat in their games.

Ewan Powers-Maguire dominated the scorecard in both clashes, claiming eight tries in the opening game as the Tigers roared to a 15-13 win.

Sam Gray (2), Henry Devin (2), Finley Backhouse (2) and Harry Madge also dotted down in a team which featured Harvey Hannay and Danny Page.

Powers-Maguire grabbed four tries in the next game but it wasn't enough the Dorset side earned a 10-8 success. Backhouse (2), Madge and Hannay also claimed tries.

The team Jon Hannay took charge of claimed draws in both their games. In the opener, a thrilling 11-11 draw, Dylan Burrough bagged four tries while Finley Offer-Hoar (2), Alfie Terry (2), Tom Phillips, Charlie Pickering and Harry Kent scored.

Burrough and Phillips notched a hat-trick in the second game as the Tigers recovered from a slow start to earn a 8-8 draw. Offer-Hoar (2) scored the others while Bryn Johnson made up the side.

Hannay said: "The boys have been working hard over the last few weeks and these efforts are paying dividends with some really positive results."

Squad (14): Terry, Phillips, Burrough, Kent, Offer-Hoar, Johnson, Pickering, Powers-Maguire, Backhouse, Page, Madge, Hannay, Devin, Gray. Back-to-back wins

LAST weekend the Ottery St Mary U9s travelled to a very welcoming SEATON to play both the home team and neighbouring Colyton.

First up were the home side, a tough and skilful team who began the game more than equal to the Ottery boys. However, as the game progressed, the blues took the lead through Freddie Clarke.

Soon after Sam Hatswell hit a lightning strike to make it 2-0 at half time. The second half was all Ottery. A third, and final, goal came from Jack Carpenter.

Next came COLYTON who again began by battling extremely hard but the Blues defence of Jake Blackmore, Ash Whitcombe and keeper Zak Wilkinson were more than a match for anything that came their way.

Ottery went to record a second 3-0 win with goals from Clarke, Carpenter and Josh Howard.

A special mention has to go to Sam Gleeson who was relentless in midfield as well as defenders Whitcombe and Blackmore in defence.

Otters squad; Zak Wilkinson, Jake Blackmore, Ash Whitcombe, Jack Carpenter, Josh Howard, Sam Hatswell, Sam Gleeson, Freddie Clarke and Finlay Giles.

Peach of a run from Gillian!

BECAUSE of demand, the EXETER TRAIL Half marathon held around the canal basin had two races, one on Saturday and the other on Sunday with AVR's attending both.

On Saturday Gillian Peach was the first home, 140th in 2:06:21 with Rosie Thoenissen 146th, 2:09:03; Bethany Laycock 149th, 2:09:10 and Sue Venn 153rd, 2:09:56.

Susie Thoenissen was delighted to break her PB finishing 161st, 2:13:16. Amie Sibley was also very pleased as she knocked nearly nine minutes off of her time from last year finishing 174th in a new PB of 2:17:38.

Luke Reed was the first AVR home on the Sunday run, the triathlete somewhat missed the swim and bike part of that race but ran exceedingly well to finish 14th in 1:23:54.

Angela Kerr was elated to beat the two-hour mark, completing in 1:55:41, her fastest time since spinal surgery held her back. Mark Harding-Perrott finished in 2:04:00 and Martin Kerr's time was 2:22:59.

AXE CLIFF

with Helen Kenworthy

THE Seniors and Ladies joined forces in one of their "friendly" encounters.

The greensomes format enabled some of the players to benefit from long tee and fairway shots but it was accuracy, not distance, which won the day.

Result: 1st Lesley Crawford & Nigel Garwood (34 pts), 2nd Anne Jarvis & Chris Jowett (32), 3rd Helen Gaudie and Gilbert Cox (31).

The Men's Competition on February 8th was Winter League round 7.

Results: 1st Dave Morgan & Alan Cooper 45pts, 2nd Neil Jones & Daryl Jones 44. Richard Gibbons and Paul Clode carded the only 2s.

Last Wednesday the Ladies played Australian Spoons. Result: 1st Barbara Cummings & Jill Wellington, 2nd Margaret Kenchington & Lesley Crawford, 3rd Pat Aysford & Bee Sammons.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Tuesday Mixed

TREBLE Six is always popular with the Tuesday Mixed Players - it gives everyone a chance to get their swing going with the first six holes Better Ball - then on to the Greensomes format then playing the last six holes Foursomes.

Getting into their swings and staying throughout the game were Jan Dickinson and Stewart Slater with an amazing 45pts helped by Jan's putter.

In 2nd place with 38 on c/b were Di Wall playing with John Frith. In 3rd place were Lesley Farley & John Northover.

Club Captain's wife Anne-Marie Graham presented the prizes.

Ladies Section

FORTY ladies set out to play their monthly Stableford (14 in Silver division, 12 in Bronze One and 14 in Bronze Two). These are counted as non-qualifiers in the Winter months so results do not affect handicaps.

Sue Ritchie came in with a barnstorming 39 points to win Silver division followed by Ann Trayling with 37 and Chris Pearce with 36.

In Bronze One Ann Desmoulins took the honours with 33 points on count-back from Penny Blackburn with the same score and in Bronze Two Linda McLaughlin came 1st with 36 points, Jan Portlock 2nd with 30 on count-back from Di Wall.

Local track stars shine for county

COLYTON Grammar School student Zoe Kuyken produced her best performance of the season to help Devon lift the senior girls' team title at the South West Schools' Cross Country Championships.

In her third appearance for Devon in the event - she was 38th in 2012 and 38th the following year - the 17-year-old was 11th and fourth scorer in the winning squad at Grittleton House School, near Chippenham.

"It was a good run by Zoe and she was pleased the team won," said her coach Brian O'Hare.

Another Colyton Grammar School student to impress was Elliot Moran.

On his debut last year the 14-year finished 14th but such as been his improvement that Moran came sixth and first Devon runner in the junior boys' race on Saturday.

family success

There was also a 15th place in the senior boys for Colyton's Patrick Livingstone 15th.

It proved to be a good day for the Livingstone family as brother Johnny and sister Florence were also in the squad, which is a remarkable achievement.

Johnny, who is also at Colyton, came a fine eighth in the minor boys' race and Florence, who is at King's School in Ottery St Mary, was 43rd in the inter girls' age.

Top Devon runner in the inter boy's race was another King's student, Jack Gregorius, who came 24th while Eleanor Brandon was 15th in the junior girls' age group.

running extra grizzly 2015

Preparations in place for 'Dash to Delirium'

THE 28th running of the Grizzly and Cub runs start together on Seaton Esplanade at 10.30 am on Sunday 1st March - this year subtitled "Dash to Delirium" - and they remain one of the toughest Multi-Terrain challenges you are likely to come across.

The 20 (ish) mile Grizzly will finish at the same location from approximately 1pm, while the shorter nine-mile Cub Run, which is run over part of the main course, will finish from 11.30am onwards.

There are 1,812 entrants in the Grizzly with Benfleet RC bringing 63 runners (10 more than last year), Bedford Harriers 29, Tiptree RR 27, Honiton RC 26 and host club AVR 63.

There are 53 runners from the Netherlands, two from the USA and Cyprus plus one from France and Germany.

There are 347 runners in the Cub Run, plus the "Grizfest" and junior runs on Grizzly Saturday. The first three from last year's Grizzly are up for the challenge again, that's winner Ceri Reed of Wild Running, Rick Weston, Serpentine RC and AVR's Patrick Devine-Wright.

The Headquarters will be at Seaton Town Hall where the Runners Need (Exeter) shop, open to all will have super bargains.

The GRIZZLY course is 20 AVR miles of very tough running, around and through some of the best scenery in the country, with lots of hills, two official bogs and a soupoon of undulating pebble beach. We haven't had the rain and gales of last year but it will still be a tough endurance test.

The route has been slightly modified. After a small loop around Seaton beach, the runners will go over to Beer via Bunts Corner, Old Beer Road and Old Beer Hill, down at Long Hill and Fore Street, then up Common Lane, through the Common Car Park and Caravan Site then over the common to Branscombe Mouth where there will be music by Kagemusha Taiko - Japanese-style drummers.

The Cub Run will turn left on or near Branscombe beach and return via Under Hooken.

The Grizzly proceeds to the Village Hall, then lots of private land around Gays Farm where Slapjack will be jamming, then Watercombe and Elverway before finally reaching the two bogs in the Hole area.

Then it's onward to The Fountain Head where Grizzly Group Stampita (formerly Rooting Around) will be boogying on. It's then back to Branscombe Mouth.

A jaunty jog along Branscombe beach is followed by the Stairway to Heaven climb back to Beer Common, eventually returning to Seaton by way of Beer Jubilee Gardens, Clinton Way, Beer Road and Cliff Field Gardens.

The best spectator vantage points will be at Seaton Sea Front, (Start and Finish), Beer Fore Street (three miles), Beer Head Car Park (3.3 and 17.6 miles), the Sea Shanty at Branscombe Mouth (5.5 & 16 miles), Branscombe Village Hall (6.2 miles), the Fountain Head Branscombe (14.3 miles), and Beer Cliff Top and Jubilee Gardens (18 miles).

There will be a superbly constructed Grizzly Memorial provided by the kindred spirit of the Dung-beans. Runners can tie a ribbon, or place an object as they pass through, and have a shared moment of reflection on whom or what is really dear to their hearts.

There may well be traffic delays at Seaton as The Esplanade is closed all day on Sunday and also on Saturday afternoon for the Junior races. Castle Hill will be closed between 10.30am and 5pm.

Due to the Coastal path closure Beer Road will be closed for a while in sections from Castle Hill to the top of Long Hill at the start of the run then on the return Beer Road from the exit of Clinton Way to Cliff Field Gardens will just be coned off to enable the safe return of runners.

Delays in Fore Street Beer between 10.50am and 11.30am, Common Lane will be closed during the event, so delays will occur near the Anchor until 4.30 pm.

Northern Lane from Branscombe Airfield to the cattle grid at junction with Hole Hill (east), will be closed between 11am and 3.30pm. Locksey's Lane will be closed between Branscombe Village Hall and the A3052 between 11am and 3.30pm.

Chardstock's Rowan making mark in national cycling scene

UP and coming racing cyclist Rowan Ellis continues to impress on the regional and national stage with a string of excellent performances over the autumn and winter marking him as one of the South West's, if not the country's budding talents.

Despite being just 13 at the time the Chardstock youngster was named as reserve for the South West region's cycling team for the UK School Games, in a competition open to young people aged up to 17.

Rowan, who rides for local club 1st Chard Wheelers backed by Axminster's Cycling Components, won the club's under 16 time trial title in September, again competing against riders up to three years older than himself.

A string of good performances through the year led to him being selected for British Cycling's Regional School of Racing for the South West's most talented youth riders.

Rowan is the only under 14 member of the programme, where riders benefit from advice from some of the UK's leading coaches.

The autumn saw the start of the Winter Track League at Newport International Velodrome - one of only four indoor cycle tracks in the UK where competition is always fierce and the league draws riders from as far afield as London and Birmingham.

Over the 10 weeks Rowan clocked up 17 wins and 23 other top three placings scoring twice as many points as the second place rider.

In winning the youth league Rowan became the first ever rider from the South West to win a track league at the velodrome.

The end of January saw the first major national track competition of the year with the Icebreaker series, that had almost all the best youth riders from across the country taking part.

In the three-race competition Rowan threw off a bad start when he was boxed-in during the finish of the scratch race finishing a disappointing 11th to bounce back with third in the elimination.

He then took third in the points race; despite crashing heavily after the second sprint.

He remounted with deep wounds to his elbow, hip and back to win the third sprint and take an amazing third place.

His strong performance leaves him fourth overall, just one point off third, going into round two of the series.
